Design Thinking Research Award LOIs Due Dec. 2

Community Health Grant and Leaders Institute Deadlines

The Community Leaders Institute (CLI) is a 6-week leadership training program for representatives of organizations and individuals involved in healthcare challenges. There are separate applications for organizational/community leaders, key program staff, or community members from UC. Encouraged to apply are program administrators, organizations, and not-for-profit organizations. Up to $20,000 may be requested.

Research faculty, administrators, and staff are invited to collaborate with CCHMC investigators. Faculty or affiliates of CCTST partnering institutions are encouraged to collaborate with CCHMC investigators. Applications involving over 500 students and more than 40 faculty members from UC.

The Collaborative has a track record of success over 500 students and more than 40 faculty members from UC. The Collaborative has engaged over 500 students and more than 40 faculty members from UC.

To reach the Research Auditorium from off campus, enter CCHMC Location S (directly across Albert Sabin Way from the College of Medicine). Take the elevator to Level 1, turn right, then proceed down the hall. The Research Auditorium is on the right.

For more information on applying, contact program director, Professor of Surgery and Co-Director, CCTST, Teresa Smith, MD, at tsp1@ucmail.uc.edu or (513) 558-5257.

FURTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

- The Molecular Epidemiology in Children's Environmental Health Research Training Program (MCERTP)
- The Live Well Collaborative (LWC)
- The Ohio Clinical Trials Collaborative (CTC)
- The Clinical and Translational Science Tracking (CCTST) Program

New Economics of Growth: Foundation Special Lecture. Erin Haynes, DrPH, is available online.

Living Well across the lifespan. It is built around the open innovation model for moving translational research into the marketplace.

MPH will discuss Address Childhood Lead Poisoning.