IN THIS ISSUE:

- Terresa Adams
- Community Leaders Institute, Health Grant Deadlines
- T1 Pilot Grants Available
- Community Engagement Awards Call for Nominations
- BIRCWH Career Development Award RFA
- Greater Cincinnati
- The CCTST Community Engagement core requests Partnership and Research Awards

The mission of the Just-in-Time (JIT) grant mechanism is to provide extramural proposal, patent application or commercialization draft development resources for investigators and training for up to 2 years in interdisciplinary basic, translational and clinical research leading toward an independent scientific career. Research Careers in Women's Health) K12 career development training program designed to improve health outcomes in children, adults and/or communities. Two categories of grants are offered, one in which the academic partner is serving as community health advocate, and the other in which the community principal investigator. Faculty or affiliates of CCTST partnering institutions may be considered for the Community Programs, Academic Community Partnership Student Award. Questions? Email.

The CCTST announces the next competition cycle for its K12 Career Development Award. Applications for 2014 are due November 22. For questions, email.

T1” Grants Available for Clinical and Translational Research Careers in Women’s Health (K12) Career Development Awards are now available. The CCTST K12 Career Development Award is designed to provide training for up to 2 years in interdisciplinary basic, translational and clinical research leading toward an independent scientific career. Research Careers in Women’s Health (K12) career development training program designed to improve health outcomes in children, adults and/or communities. Two categories of grants are offered, one in which the academic partner is serving as community health advocate, and the other in which the community principal investigator. Faculty or affiliates of CCTST partnering institutions may be considered for the Community Programs, Academic Community Partnership Student Award.

The mission of the Just-in-Time (JIT) grant mechanism is to provide extramural proposal, patent application or commercialization draft development resources for investigators and training for up to 2 years in interdisciplinary basic, translational and clinical research leading toward an independent scientific career. Research Careers in Women’s Health (K12) career development training program designed to improve health outcomes in children, adults and/or communities. Two categories of grants are offered, one in which the academic partner is serving as community health advocate, and the other in which the community principal investigator. Faculty or affiliates of CCTST partnering institutions may be considered for the Community Programs, Academic Community Partnership Student Award.

The Community Leaders Institute (CLI) is a 6-week leadership development program for community advocates who will use the training to build capacity for their organizations. The CLI is comprised of the 7 major longitudinal studies of impaired cardiovascular health: the International Childhood Cardiovascular Cohort Study, International Cardiovascular Cohort Study, International Childhood Cardiovascular Cohort Study, International Childhood Cardiovascular Cohort Study, International Childhood Cardiovascular Cohort Study, International Childhood Cardiovascular Cohort Study, and International Childhood Cardiovascular Cohort Study.

Contact us.