

Challenges & Risks in Acute Care Research Seminar

Monday, April 1, 2019 | 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm
7051 UC Medical Sciences Building (MSB)

Registration: Click here or use the QR code

Seminar Presentations will Include:

When does Acute Care Research involve no more than minimal risk? Update - Changes to Common Rule

- Michael Linke, PhD, UC Institutional Review Board

Revive Trial - UC Surgery/Trauma Research

“Risk” in an emergent Exception from Informed Consent (EFIC) clinical trial

- Timothy Pritts, MD PhD, Professor of Surgery and Chief, Section of General Surgery
- Dina Gooma, BS, RTT, Clinical Research Director
- Carolina Rodriguez, BA, CCRP, Clinical Research Manager/Regulatory Affairs

iMet Trial – Cincinnati Children’s Pediatric Emergency Medicine Research

“Risk” level in biomarkers study of Early Traumatic Brain Injury

- Tara Rhine, MD, MS, Assistant Professor, CCHMC Division of Emergency Medicine

Risks in Acute Care Research – Research vs. Critical Illness

- Richard Branson, MS, RRT, UC Professor of Surgery Emeritus

Panel discussion, Q&A

- Moderator: Michael Linke
- Panelists: R. Branson, D. Gooma, Dr. Pritts, Dr. Rhine, C. Rodriguez

Seminar Target Audiences: Physicians, CRP’s, researchers, practitioners, acute care stakeholders

Questions: Contact Amy Ewing: Amy.Ewing@uc.edu | 513.803.8365

Part of UC Research & Innovation Week