

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Department of Environmental Health and 85 years of research excellence at the Kettering Research Complex

Save the Date

Friday October 16, 2015

Research Symposium

Kettering / Kehoe Auditorium

10AM – 3PM

Data and Biospecimen Sharing in Environmental Health Are You Ready?

RSVP required for lunch: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/6N6KQPM>

Presenters include

Susan M. Pinney, PhD; University of Cincinnati
Setting the Stage: The Many Benefits of Sharing

Scott Langevin, PhD; University of Cincinnati
Public repositories for deposition and sharing of "omics" data

Rachel Morello-Frosch, PhD
University of California, Berkeley
Keynote Address / CCTST Grand Rounds Presentation (12-1:15 PM)
*Communicating results in post-Belmont era biomonitoring studies—
Implications for researchers and study participants*

Kimberly Yolton, PhD; CCHMC
HOME Study

Stella Davies, MBBS, PhD, MRCP; CCHMC
Childhood Cancer Survivors Cohort